

Yankee Hill Village

With small town charm and big city conveniences, Yankee Hill Village marries the best of both worlds in the heart of south Lincoln, Nebraska. Residents of the beloved community are drawn to its one-level living, with no steps or elevators. Many apartments offer walk-out patios with scenic views of beautiful landscaped courtyards with walking paths and expansive grassy areas.

With independent retirement living, assisted living and memory support available, you can rest comfortably knowing Yankee Hill can support ongoing needs as they arise. If you're working on health goals or managing a chronic condition, our Thrive by Immanuel Wellness Center experts have the answers. And if you're a little hungry, discover how retirement is reimaged through restaurant-style dining that's anything but ordinary.
